ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 21, 2024 — Fourth Sunday of Easter

* As we thank the good Lord for the many graces and blessings of the past 75 years with which he has gifted us through the calling of our church, we gladly acknowledge the success of our celebration last Sunday, both via the episcopal mass and the anniversary luncheon. The auxiliary Bishop of Hamilton, Bishop Lobsinger, was happy to come celebrate Mass with us, to recall our past, and to encourage us. After Mass, he went down to the hall, went from table to table, conversing with our members. The excellent post-luncheon program won the enthusiasm of everyone. It was palpable even as they left the hall. We would like to thank the hardworking volunteer team (led by Marika Nagy-Erdos) for their marvellous work and their commitment and love for our parish. The result was a delicious lunch, as well as an overall success. Thanks are also due for the contribution of items for the raffle.

* Scouting at our church started in the fall of 1958 at the initiative of our then pastor, Jesuit Father Janos Solymar. A few months later, in the spring of 1959, the scout troop, consisting of both boys and girls, registered in the Hungarian Scout Association abroad and was assigned troop number 27. The troop was named after Istvan Kaszap, a Jesuit candidate who led an exemplary holy life. We are celebrating the 65th anniversary at this year's scout ball, on May 4. A champagne reception, delicious dinner, good wines, guaranteed good atmosphere and live music (the Szinkron band) await our guests, starting at 6:30 pm. Ticket prices: sponsors $80, adults $60, students (ages 11-18) $30, and children (ages 5-10) $20. Please make your reservations with Jutka Monoki (905-966-6697) or Izabella Bauer (izabellabauer@hotmail.com), in advance only. Ticket prices will increase by $10 after April 27. Electronic payment is also possible: hamiltonicserkeszek2759@gmail.com

* We are happy to accept flowers for the statue of Mary and for the sanctuary. May is the month of Mary and of flowers. Our crowning of Mary is planned for May 5.

MASS CELEBRATED EVERY SUNDAY
10:30 am in Hungarian
